

TODD W. UTZIG

Defrauded, Despised & Derelict

Where blind lead the blind, together, they do reside in the ditch.
(Excerpted from Matthew 15:14)

Copyright ©2014 By Todd W. Utzig

1/7/2014

When it comes to wealth redistribution, nothing is “off limits” for the president and his minions.

Chapter 1

Defrauded

If only for a paragraph, I will play nice. Sin's truths are not indigenous to any one political party. Mark Sanchez and Bill Clinton could attest to as much.

However, domestic affronts to either Freedom of religion, or freedom of speech are where I draw the line. Said freedoms are more closely related than any set of identical, maternal twins. Although I'm a pastor, newspaper editor, radio personality and screenwriter, I stand before you today in the form of this eCompilation – Defrauded, Despised And Derelict.

This eBook is going to get really yummy rather quickly - if you are able to stomach the content matter of its first section. As we travel along, together, we'll discuss: un-American behavior, freedom of speech, the treatment of Nakoula Basseley Nakoula, the fact that truly independent Americans have played way too nice, the "accidental" poisoning of Michael Cormier, per the Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department, and last but certainly not least, the fact that POTUS, #44, is NO unitor, but first we must pour the footings and erect the framework. As the author of this e-Compilation it is my responsibility to see to the aforementioned as well as I possibly can. Enjoy.

Doubtless, sin is systemically pandemic – to which I am no stranger. In other words, I am a red-blooded, American male with nearly 20/20 vision. Enough said?

As a culture, even a society, we will never win if we are not, at some point in our adult life, willing to walk away from that which so easily besets us – namely our appetite for sinning as a profession or way of life. Walking away from that which would own us is, far from easy, and not only necessary to the healthful preservation of both self and family, but is also a command. (REFERENCE) Once my craft becomes the creed by which I formulate the moments of my day – then I suppose I shall be on my way. (Not to be confused with that which we cannot earn – namely our salvation)

We do confuse the heart and the mind – further evidence that the world is wrong-side up. My heart is fleshly and all-too-willing to muse upon the idea that another could ever replace my wife Lidia – who is as highly favored as I am blessed. God’s holy word does refer to our adulterated indulgence as weights that do so easily beset us – “us” being the operative word. We are all in this together.

As history would have it, God, in his infinite wisdom, saw fit to include a single forbidden tree on the way to not having created identical clones.

In stark contrast, liberal Democrats honestly believe that they are doing the “free world” a favor when they successfully silence anyone that “injures” the feelings of another. Chugga, chugga, choo, choo – next stop – burning books that paint Hilter in a negative light – but that couldn’t happen here. You wanna bet? Freedom of Speech suffered its greatest defeat on September 27, 2012 with the arrest of one, Nakoula Basseley Nakoula – and it happened here rather than China, a remote Middle-Eastern province, or North Korea. The culprit? The United States Department Of Justice. To be sure, we’ll lay the naysayer’s arguments to rest at a later time – as this eBook unfolds, but first we must together realize an amazing truth about freedom – perhaps her most central truth, in fact.

Despite the fact that there is no one good but God, rocket science is not required to realize that wealth redistribution bankrupts nations – it always has and always will. It takes very little real digging, or real world experience, for that matter, to determine that wealth redistribution minus every truly able-bodied person actually gathering/working is rubbish, and far from biblical.

The first rule in a most-welcomed, intelligently promoted, game of church and state is immutable. As a politician, one cannot read from the Holy word of God and not expect scrutiny.

Scrutiny is that thing that knowledgeable Bible teachers welcome. You cannot invite yourself to another's playground and then cry foul once your outdone and then ice the cake with, "I'm taking my toys and going home." Thumb your nose at us on our playground and get away with it – no way, no sir. You will sit and listen, seeing that you've attended stag and your separation of church and states, or regular date, if you will, is nowhere to be found even though you as the premier politician of the land toss about Holy Writ sorely out of context on a very national platform. In other words, as long as I'm alive, you will not have your cake and be allowed to eat it too. Neither the aforementioned nor that which follows should be considered a personal endorsement meant to subjugate any of our politicians.

In light of the New Testament Jesus, it's quite simple really – am I going to at least venture in the direction of, "neither do I condemn thee, go and sin no more," or is everything going to revolve around the far-too-popular notion that redistribution of wealth is Scriptural – even sanctioned by God?

Taxes, Fines And Now The word of God too

– What's Next? By Todd W. Utzig

(First published 12/19/2013 by The Blaze.com)

Although we are commended to remember the poor in tangibly meaningful, particularly autonomous fashion, the Bible doesn't teach us to coddle or reward sluggards.

From their poster child, Barack Obama, to their Sunday pulpit, puppet shows, it's entirely okay for Team Leftist to marry that which for us, is strictly off limits – the word of God and political affairs. The most dangerous interlude is the notion that wealth redistribution is promoted by the most contextual work under the sun – the Holy Bible. Misguided as they are, we are still called to pray for Team Progressive. To which I frequently reply, alright, but bahumbug.

Around the time the Democratic National Committee voted to banish "God" from its language, the president once again swagged his way onto national television and quoted God's word out of context – successfully parading 1 Thessalonians 4:6 as if it were the only verse in the entire chapter:

“That no one transgress and wrong his brother in this matter, because the Lord is an avenger in all these things, as we told you beforehand and solemnly warned you.”

Between the move made by the Democratic National Committee and the aforementioned stunt, I cannot be the only one that noticed the obvious irony. In essence, the president not only defrauded his constituents and other ill-informed Americans by not having read 1 Thessalonians 4:1-8, but also may have despised God in the process – based on verse eight – assuming that he was privy to the overall context of the scripture set.

All politicians initiate legislation based on a set of deeply held values, but not all leaders pimp out the Holy word of God solely to achieve an end that is far from biblical. What about verses one through five, seven, and eight of 1 Thessalonians chapter four, Mr. President?

With all due respect sir, please don't quit your day job. Actually Mr. President, the Scripture verse that you've deemed worthy of wealth redistribution, 1st Thessalonians 4:6, is part of a set of verses which speak to sexual integrity – if you absolutely must know. Like it or not, Bible verses never exist in a vacuum.

Let's compare the president's shenanigans with the unadulterated word of God shall we – seeing the president hath invited himself to undergo scriptural scrutiny? Compare 1st Thessalonians 4:6 within the following eight verses.

“1 Furthermore then we beseech you, brethren, and exhort you by the Lord Jesus, that as ye have received of us how ye ought to walk and to please God, so ye would abound more and more.

2 For ye know what commandments we gave you by the Lord Jesus.

3 For this is the will of God, even your sanctification, that ye should abstain from fornication:

4 That every one of you should know how to possess his vessel in sanctification and honor;

5 Not in the lust of concupiscence, even as the Gentiles which know not God:

6 That no man go beyond and defraud his brother in any matter: because that the Lord is the avenger of all such as we have forewarned you and testified.

7 For God hath not called us to uncleanness, but unto holiness.

8 He therefore that despiseth, despiseth not man, but God, who hath also given unto us his holy Spirit.”

The modern world is upside down and although an argument could be made for the role of temporary, human government in a fallen world, the Nanny State has replaced Spirit-filled oversight elected by church officials. (See Acts 1:1-6)

By quoting 1 Thessalonians 4:1-8 in a vacuum, Mr. President, you'll only be guilty of having defrauded your constituency by trying to pass off verse six as if it could ever exist on its own. Disagree with the Holy Scripture Set, and you'll be guilty of despising God himself.

Obviously, when it comes to wealth redistribution, nothing is off limits for the president and his minions. Why should there be, after all he appears to be a man after Stalin's own heart.

America, the next time a liberal attempts to serve you up his or her one course meal of non-biblical, single verse, redistribution of wealth, toss them, in addition to verses one through five, seven, and eight of 1st Thessalonians chapter four, 2 Thessalonians 3:10-14:

10 For even when we were with you, this we commanded you, that if any would not work, neither should he eat.

11 For we hear that there are some which walk among you disorderly, working not at all, but are busybodies.

12 Now them that are such we command and exhort by our Lord Jesus Christ, that with quietness they work, and eat their own bread.

13 But ye, brethren, be not weary in well doing.

14 And if any man obey not our word by this epistle, note that man, and have no company with him, that he may be ashamed.

Please forgive me Mr. President, if your move wasn't premeditated. Many do sit under false teaching today and they do so to their own demise – seeing that the Bible commends us to study that we might show ourselves approved – workmen and women that needeth not be ashamed.

By the way, even though I disagree with well over ninety-nine percent of your policy, I need prayer too, “for all have sinned and come short of the glory of God.”

To purchase your full e-copy of Defrauded,
Despised & Derelict for just $1.95 simply visit:

<http://thetoddutzig.weebly.com> or
<http://coexistthis.net>

& Click on the caustic link entitled, Defrauded, Despised and Derelict at the top of either page – do your thing America – enjoy! Feel free to pass this first portion along to friends and family, but not the second as my wife needs surgery and I am using the proceeds from this eCompilation for her surgery seeing we just lost our insurance.

As we travel along, together, we'll discuss: un-American behavior, freedom of speech, the treatment of Nakoula Basseley Nakoula, the fact that truly independent Americans have played way too nice, the "accidental" poisoning of Michael Cormier, per the Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department, and last but certainly not least, the fact that POTUS, #44, is NO unitor!

In addition to the aforementioned, Toddy is going to include his original quote bag. 'Tis time to take the bull by the horns and the balls and save America from the Communists within her borders.
If nothing else we can have some fun along the way
– by shutting their pie holes with extreme prejudice.

Purchase your full copy for $1.95 at <http://thetoddutzig.weebly.com>